

WRJ Pacific District Scholarship Guidelines

As of 2021, these are the new District Scholarship Guidelines. The Scholarship Committee is now a Standing Committee and will be regularly reviewing applications as they are submitted. Scholarships will be available to individuals and Sisterhoods/women's groups for the District, WRJ events, and some URJ events that promote and support PD goals and initiatives, as resources allow. The goal is to allow you to enhance your leadership skills and to further your connections to the District and WRJ.

An application will be required and must be submitted online at:

<https://www.wrjpacific.org/district-scholarships.html>

Application Submission Deadline: 60 Days before the event

Scholarship Requirements & Guidelines:

- Recipient (individual, Sisterhood, or women's group) must be an affiliated/member of the Women of Reform Judaism, in good standing, with current dues paid.
- Scholarships are based on financial need. Check with your own Sisterhood or women's group first, before making an application.
- Scholarships can be applied to registration, travel, and lodging.
- The scholarship can be a supplement to any other funding, if available
- Recipient must attend the entire event and all of its programming.
- After the event, recipient must make a report back to her Sisterhood/women's group, or if an individual member, to the District VP Membership.
- Scholarships will be paid directly to the applicant.
- Scholarships may be split to be used by more than one woman.
- Applications will be considered on a first come, first served basis.
- Receipt of previous scholarships do not disqualify you from applying again.
- If you are not able to attend the event, let the Scholarship Committee know immediately. You will need to reimburse the District in the amount of the scholarship.

Please contact Ellen Bick at scholarships.wrjpd@gmail.com if you have any questions.